

SHAKESPEARE'S ROMEO AND JULIET

Defying the hatred of their warring families, a pair of "star-crossed lovers" risks everything for love in this classical production of the Bard's most famous tragedy. The Tragedy of Romeo and Juliet examines the powers of conflict and chaos as fate takes a bow in this eternal tale. Fri.-Sat. 7 p.m. and Sun. at 2 p.m., April 1-15. Click here for tickets.
