ALICE AND THE PORTLAND JAZZ FESTIVAL!

NWCT is thrilled to announce that its newly commissioned play, a jazz-inspired Alice in Wonderland by noted composer Ezra Weiss, will be a featured attraction at the 2009 Portland Jazz Festival. Audiences from around the globe gather in Portland each year for this prestigious festival; NWCT's musical version of Lewis Carroll's classic story will take its place alongside world-renowned international jazz greats in January for a celebration of this revered American musical art form. "This partnership and support of new works is tremendously exciting," says Sarah Jane Hardy, NWCT artistic director. "We are delighted to be part of this event." Alice runs Jan. 23-Feb. 15, 2009.
