JOIN THE PTA— PARENT THEATER ASSOCIATION!

We see them everywhere—in the halls, outside classrooms, in the lobby during shows; they're PARENTS, and without them, NWCT would have no children to educate, entertain or enrich! We're pleased to announce the second season of NWCT's PTA, formed of fabulous parents who want to be part of the magic of NWCT.

There will be a Martini Mixer on Wednesday, August 13 from 6-8 p.m. at NWCT, for all parents who would like to learn more about this core volunteer group. And this PTA commitment is flexible; as much (or as little!) time as you have to give, you can make a meaningful contribution to the company. We'll have some drinks, get to know each other, and discuss opportunities and projects for the 2008-09 season. Hope to see you there! (Can't make the mixer, but still want to be involved? Email Melody at melody@nwcts.org.)

KID'S CO. NW— WERE YOU PART OF IT?

July 25, 26 and 27 will mark a milestone in NWCT history; the 15th anniversary reunion of Kid's Company NW, NWCT's ambassador musical theater revue troupe! Students and instructors from Oregon and across the country will converge at NWCT for a three-day celebration of Kid's Co., getting reacquainted and sharing remembrances of troupes past.

Do you remember... The Elevator Fiasco... the Dancing Hamburgers... the Lonely Little Petunia... the character who slid down a laundry chute... the "Dead Ponies"... the show where a dad filled in for the lead... the performer who jumped a fence to get to the show... the performer who stood by the back door of NWCT in a gorilla suit and greeted unsuspecting wedding guests... or REDWALL?

No? Then what do you remember? Click here to download a reunion packet to send in your memories and ideas for reunion activities, along with a $25 participation fee (can be waived.) Need more information? Contact Carolyn Newsom at 503-222-2190 or carolyn@nwcts.org.
