

JOB TITLE: Lead Teaching Artist

REPORTS TO: Education Director and/or Program Manager: Outreach

PAY: $23.00–$25.00/hr for teaching/direct supervision of students; $15.45/hr for prep and meetings, part-time, non-exempt.

Do you love working with children and are excited to nurture their artistic growth? Are you passionate about equity and creating an environment that meets the needs of all children? Do you enjoy storytelling, imaginative play, and/or theater? Are you able to thrive in an environment that may occasionally be described as “organized chaos”?

Overview

Northwest Children’s Theater and School (NWCT) seeks experienced and energetic individuals from diverse backgrounds to lead in-person Theater School and Outreach classes and camps. Applicants should have 3+ years of practical experience teaching creative drama, acting, musical theater, improvisation, devising, and/or choreography to youth ages 4–18 in camps, classrooms, theater schools, or after-school settings.

WEEKENDS

Mondays–Fridays (1–5 days/week)
2:00 PM–5:30 PM (1–3 hrs/day)

and/or

WEEKDAYS

Saturdays and/or Sundays
10:00 AM–4:30 PM (1–6 hrs/day)

Duties & Responsibilities

Inspire youth to create, play, and develop confidence and a sense of community through theater.

- Develop and implement thoughtful, creative, and flexible content based on the theme/subject of class, teaching skills through games and activities.
- Implement classroom management strategies to establish a welcoming learning environment where students feel a sense of agency and belonging.
- Address the learning needs of diverse student populations.
- Lead students through the process of creating a final demo/performance for family and friends.
- Mentor Assistant Teachers.
- Travel to various class locations throughout the Portland Metro Area.

This position requires travel to satellite locations in the Portland Metro Area including, but not limited to, schools in Portland Public, Reynolds, and Beaverton School Districts.

Desirable Personal Values

- Passion for youth arts education and an understanding of the transformative role the performing arts can play in youths' lives.
- Dedication to empowering students to share their voice and perspectives.
- Commitment to diversity, equity, inclusion, and anti-racism.
- Engages in active listening and is sensitive to the needs of others.
- Works with a deep sense of play and celebrates joy within the process and product.
- Flexible, fun, responsible, patient, creative, and self-motivated.

Required Skills & Qualifications

- Experience working with young people in camp, classrooms, theater schools, or after-school settings.
- Experience in theater performance (acting, musical theatre, improvisation, choreography, Shakespeare performance and text, directing, etc) and/or creative drama (devising, creative play, theater games, imaginative world-building, etc).
- Ability to maintain composure and professionalism in high-energy environments. Ability to work under pressure and anticipate solutions to problems
- Experience working with youth with differing social, emotional, and educational needs.
- Flexibility to change approach or teaching methods to best fit the situation.
- Understanding of the developmental needs of youth.
- Works well in a team environment with minimal supervision.
- First Aid and CPR certification is a plus.
- English/Spanish bilingual is a plus.
- Background checks required.

Physical Requirements & Expectations

- Able to lift 30 pounds. (Reasonable accommodations will be made for persons with disabilities.)
- Must be flexible working in a fast-paced, nonprofit environment.
- Willing to use personal equipment such as a cell phone and laptop/tablet when working remotely.
- Reliable transportation or comfort navigating public transit to travel to locations in the Portland Metro Area including, but not limited to, schools in Portland Public, Reynolds, and Beaverton School Districts.

Candidates are hired on a rolling basis. Deadline for fall class hires: Aug 20, 2023. Submit a letter of interest and resume to hire@nwcts.org. Submit documents in PDF format only.