COME ONE, COME ALL TO THE HALLOWEEN BALL! Northwest Children's Theater's Halloween Ball Returns to The Judy in downtown Portland

Northwest Children's Theater's Halloween Ball returns to The Judy October 12-27, running Saturdays and Sundays at 12:30 pm and 3:15 pm.

The fun kicks off with a costume parade in The Grand Lobby, followed by an interactive live storytime. Then it's time for a splendiferous dance party and enchanting sing-a-long! Don't forget to save room for scary delicious Halloween treats at concessions!

Last year's inaugural Ball was a huge hit with families:

"All three generations had a blast!"

"Very fun activity for kids during the holiday season."

"Wonderful show with excellent performers who really paid attention to the children."

This year, the Halloween Ball takes over The Judy. Kids and parents will be announced at the top of The Grand Staircase before descending into the lobby, all the while showing off their costumes to boisterous applause. Families will make their way into the theater for Act 1, an interactive storytime in which kids will be invited up on stage to sit on oversized bean bags and participate in the fun.

A brief intermission is the perfect time to grab some popcorn, snack on treats, drink cider and stretch out those legs before returning to the theater for Act 2. The fun continues as NWCT artists entertain the audience with Halloween-themed songs, dances and games!

Tickets are $12 when purchased by September 30. Tickets raise to $15 on October 1.

The Halloween Ball is a family-friendly event most enjoyed by ages 4 and up.
